Turs standard article 14 compounded with the greatest care.

It restores gray or taded han to It removes all cruptions, itching and dandinff. It gives the head a cooling, soothing sensation of great cointoit, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigot, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong. As a dressing, nothing has been found so effectual or desirable. A A. Hayes, M D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully clected for excellent quality; and I consider it the Best Preparation for its intended purposes."

MATRIMONIAL How By profession of "Time and tide wait for no man," is the lesson that use to be written in our copybooks long ago, and, it might be added, neither does Cupid tarry or postpone his engagements. Army reunions and monument dedications are as naught, when compared with the overpowering importance of hymenial appointments. Therefore it was that an interesting little event -interesting to all concerned and of the greatest significance to two young hearts -came off last evening in this city, in spite of the fact that the unpoetical dignitaries of the Army of the Tennessee and the National Lincoln Monument Association had thoughtlessly fixed upon the same date for their great demonstration at Springfield. We refer to the marriage of Mr. W. H. Wilson and Miss. Jennie Newell, daughter of Mr. Richard

A large number of invitations had been issued, and though some of the bidden were kept away by the attractions offered at the State Capital, still enough were present to fill the large residence of the bride's parents to a degree of fullness that could not have been exceeded without discomfort. At the hour appointed, seven o'clock, the bridal party, consist ing of the bride and groom, and their attendants-Miss Sallie Malone and Capt. W. W. Kerr, and Miss Maria Mosser and Mr. Holmes Cloyd-entered the parlor, and the marriage ceremony was proceed ed with, Rev. Robert Mackenzie officiating. The form med was exceedingly brief and beautiful, and at its conclusion. congratulations were the order of the

The bride was handsomely dressed to a dove-colored silk, with head wreath and long white veil, and made a very charming appearance. The bridesmaids were attired in white. After the congratulations refreshments were served, and the uniform testimony of all present is that never were more palatable viands spread before guests Everything that the appetite could sug! gest was provided in abundance, and the zest with which the collation was partaken of fully attested its faultless charactor.

The bride was the recipient of a number of handsome and valuable prescrits, friends.

The bride and groom left on the night train for a short trip eastward, and upon their return will take up their residence in Decatur. They will receive, as they deserve, the best wishes of all our people, who, we are sure, will unite with us in the hope that their wedded life may be attended with all the happiness that it is good for mortals to enjoy.

Ladies' and Gents' Furnishing Goods, just received at S. Einstein's.

Upset and Smashed. - On yesterday afternoon Mr. Myers started from the depot to drive up town with his express wagon. When near the Cassell property he turned his horse slightly to one side in order to pass another team, when one wheel of his vehicle run over a stump, throwing Meyers and a boy, who was in the wagon, out upon the ground. In his fall Mr. M. lost his hold of the reins, and his horses ran back toward the Central the pole, and otherwise damaging it .-Here the horses cleared themselves from which they were captured. rate. Confidence has been restored among the hands by the presence of a pay car not long since, and all are working with a will. 'According to our informant there now remains only about fifteen miles of track to lay, and the road is completed to Maroa. Many thought that the track laying would all have been completed by next Wednesday, had not been that they have run out of supplies, and work was stopped for a short time in consequence. The railway men are confident that if the supplies do not the track laying will all be completed train for Springfield and the food that the month. According to this, run out and nothing prevents the work, then, trains will run over the read the coming winter, and Decatur will be the central point on another great raincad the "Hinois Midland Railway" as the consolidation of the Paris & Decatur, Paris & Terre Haute and the Peoris, At lanta & Decatur. rathroads is called.

Turs standard article is comounded with the greatest care. Its effects are as wonderful and as satisfactory as ever. It restores gray or faded hun to its youthful color.

It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff. It gives the head a cooling, soothing sensation of great comfort, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean. By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong. As a dressing, nothing has been found so effectual or desirable. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the Best Preparation for its intended purposes." Price, One Dollar.

Buckingham's Dye FOR THE WHISKERS.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied. being in one preparation, and quick-ly and effectually produces a per-manent color, which will neither rub nor wish off.
